Local and Otherwise.

The hen comes from egg. The egg comes from the hen. Which developed first? Where did it start, and when?

Floyd Light is the new night operator at the Pere Marquette depot in Yale. Rev. J. A. Bullock will hold services in Fargo next Sunday at the usual hours. Prof. N. J. Drouyor has been confined to his home the past week with the grippe.

Born to the wife of Robert Gleason in Speaker township on Monday, March 2, 1908, a son.

There were 63 deaths in St. Clair county during the month of January. Thirty-one occurred in Port Huron.

Mrs. Martin Monroe is quite sick at her home on Second. Her children have been called to the home.

Last Friday night the Junior Dancing Club held a social hop in Central Hall. Mae Hoskin presided at the piano. Fifteen couples enjoyed a very pleasant evening.

F. A. Griswold received a letter from Bart McNulty who is enjoying the fine weather of Lake Como, Florida. It will be published in our next issue, having been received too late for this.

Earnest Penby, the Shepherd Giant, who wrestled here considerably last winter, is causing some excitement in Detroit theatres by his feats of strength. None of the strong ones can down him.

Miss Alling, a returned missionary from Japan, delivered an address in the M. E. church Thursday evening, March 5. A goodly number were present and listened to an interesting talk.

A. M. Russel has moved his cream station from the Bowles building to the building north of Geo. McIntyre's implement shop, and the Port Huron Cream Co. have moved to the house north of Geo. Gough's undertaking shop.

The Almont Herald says "The old crippled engine that has been making the run over this division fell through herself Monday night, and got to leaking so badly that the fire had to be pulled. It is hoped that the company will put an engine on here that can at least go 34 miles in 2 hours."

Jay H. Weymouth, our new attorney, was in Yale over Sunday and was accompanied on his return Monday by Mrs. Weymouth. They have rented the Cooley house on the corner of Doyle and Chard streets and will at once take up their residence in Marlette.—Marlette Leader.

Politics in Speaker are rather quiet this year and there will be no opposition to John Work for supervisor. William H. Reddick for clerk, Frank Mounghan for treasurer, George Grimes for highway commissioner, who we understand are candidates for renomination and we are of the opinion that the people of Speaker cannot do better than to again elect these men.—Peck Times.

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Rev. and Mrs. E. L. Douglass when about fifty members of the Presbyterian Christian Endeavor Society met for their regular March business meeting. Games and other amusements were used to entertain the assembly. Music was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Douglass, Mr. Vickers, and Chris. Schumm. Luncheon was served by the first division of serving committee. Several new members were admitted to the Society. The next meeting will be held on April 6.

Mark Turner, who about twenty years ago was a resident here, was in Yale this week visiting his sister Mrs. Jas. Welch and renewing old acquaintances. For a number of years he has been a resident of Pontiac where he was employed in one of the buggy factories. On Jan. 5th of this year he had the misfortune to lose his wife, since which time he has been visiting with relatives in Bad Axe, Yale, Flint and other cities. In conversation with him he remarked on the vast change in the city since he lived here.

Chas. F. Schmidt, the good-natured, open-hearted German farmer who purchased the Jas. C. McKenna farm, one mile south of Yale, a little over a year ago, stopped a representative of the Expositor on the street Saturday and inquired: "How do you like this winter anyway?" On being told it was rather unsatisfactory he said further, "I don't like it a bit. Three weeks ago I drove to Mayville after a horse. On my return I bumped up against snow drifts higher than your head and was compelled to dig my way through them. I have heard of men working their passage and if anyone ever did it was me. I don't care for a repetition of such an experience. I tell you there is no place like home and you will not hear of me roosting around the country again this winter." The representative gave him all the consolation possible and congratulated him on getting home.

Changes of ads. brought in to the Expositor later than Tuesday night at 6 o'clock will be laid over until the following week. The above rule is made in order to give us time to set all changes of ads. and get our paper out in time for the morning mails on Friday. No favors will be shown in the execution of this rule.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ponsford is dangerously ill.

This week Judges Law and Tappen will take up the request of the Law and Order League for a grand jury in Port Huron. Up to the present time they have not examined the resolution or inquired into the facts.

The Reds of the M. E. Church will wind up their campaign on the evening of March 25th at which time the drama "A Woman's Honor" will be presented in Central Hall. Further notice will be published next week.

The three-and-a-half year old boy of Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Stevens of Sandusky has been very sick, but at present writing is much improved. Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Stevens were in Sandusky on Sunday last to see the little one.

Talk about California or Florida weather. We don't believe the beautiful sunshine, balmy breezes and everything that goes with an ideal climate can be beaten in either of these states. That's what we have had the past week.

Frank Dunford, Ezra Purdy, George Haas and several other Port Huron young men will go on a hunting trip near Yale this week. While away the members of the party will attend a dance to be given in their honor.—Port Huron Times.

Ed. Oatman has given up his job in a pharmacy at Gagetown and is back in Yale. He is in L. Roy Fuller's jewelry store, learning the trade, and will locate in the south end of the Oklahoma or Texas, when through with his apprenticeship here.

J. H. Young, Brockway township's highway commissioner, together with a crew of men did a good job to the road a mile north of Yale last week Thursday by leveling the humps and hollows in the roadway. The condition is much improved for travel.

The N.Y.B. club was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rounds Tuesday evening by Mrs. Rounds, Mrs. Aaron Windsor, Anna Hayes and Jennie Sheehy. About forty were present and much enjoyment was had from the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Tappen were guests from Port Huron.

Rev. W. C. Harger, presiding elder of this district of the M. P. Church, preached in the Cole Church southwest of here on Sunday evening last. Services were omitted in the Methodist Protestant Church and several sleigh-loads from here drove out to hear an excellent sermon.

The firm of Patterson & MacTaggart on Military st., Port Huron, was dissolved on Monday, March 2, by mutual consent, the Patterson interests retiring from the company. David MacTaggart assumes full control and will conduct the same in the future under the firm name of The David MacTaggart Co. This store is one of the best in the state and does a fine business. It has been built up by the untiring efforts of the firm, and now as Mr. MacTaggart becomes sole owner, he reaps the reward of his efforts.

The Jolly Farmers Club met for the third time at the hospital home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Adams Friday evening. For various reasons the program was omitted and the time pleasantly spent in social converse, music and games. The battle of wits between the young people in their game of charades proved very amusing to some of the older ones. A dainty lunch was served after which the members bade their royal entertainers a hearty good-night, feeling well repaid for braving the frosty air and bad roads. The next meeting will be with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Silverthorn March 13. Every member is expected to be present to prove the fallacy of that "unlucky thirteen."

Question:—Are not the commercial interests influenced by good roads as much as the agricultural?

BEST HEALER IN THE WORLD. Rev. F. Starbird, of East Raymond, Maine, says: "I have used Bucklen's Arnica Salve for several years, on my old army wound, and other obstinate sores, and find it the best healer in the world. I use it too with great success in my veterinary business." Price 25c. at Pollock & Hennessy's drug store.

Health—Economy

Wendal Hallman, over 80 years of age, is quite sick at the home of his daughter Mrs. Levi Donneworth northeast of Yale.

Henry Jacobs, living east of Yale, expects to move to Tecumseh today (Friday). He is undecided as to what trade he will enter when he is settled. Our best wishes go with him to his home.

The Methodist Church Choir gave a six o'clock dinner on Wednesday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Griswold, in honor of Nellie Newell who is soon to leave for her home in the West. An elegant dinner was served, after which a delightful time was spent in the playing of charades and other games. When all were seated at the table, photographer Pochler appeared on the scene and took a flashlight picture of the group, which when finished will no doubt be a rare and treasured memento of the occasion.

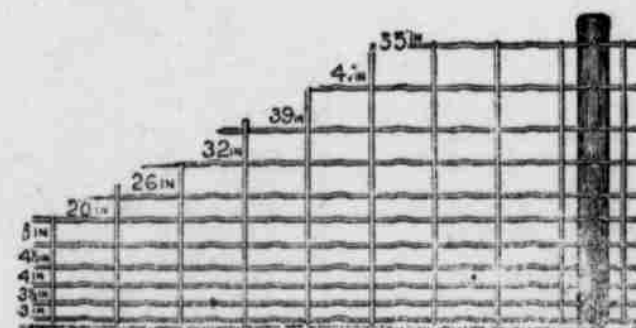

Ernest Baxter, according to some of his friends in this city, has signed a contract with the Jackson team of the Southern Michigan League to play short stop during the coming summer. Baxter was one of the mainstays of the Chronicle team of the City League last season and is probably one of the fastest players ever to be turned out of Port Huron. His host of friends in this city will be glad to hear of his success, and are confident that he will prove one of the "wins" of the season.—Port Huron Times.

The program given by the "Reds" at the M. E. church Monday evening should have been attended by a much larger audience as it was certainly very good indeed. There were several disappointments in regard to the program it was announced, but all who heard it found it worth while. Mrs. J. C. Holden gave a recitation which called forth an encore. Little Marie Drouyor spoke of the doings at her home when papa was sick, and as it happened Prof. Drouyor was confined to his home by sickness, the recitation was quite apt if not truthful. Lyle Newell sang a pretty little song and responded to an encore. Mrs. Griswold gave a sermon in the negro dialect, much enjoyed, and a solo by Rensley Holden was rendered nicely. Mrs. Roy Fuller recited one of James Whitcomb Riley's productions, and responded with a little Irish selection. The program ended with a quartette by male voices which was so good that another song was called for. After this all were invited into the parlor and served with delicious ice cream and cake.
